Judges

On its own motion, the Court orders appellants to file a brief in support of their motion for stay, addressing the standard for granting such a motion and providing factual support for their argument. Appellants shall also address the effect of a potential stay on the preliminary injunction issued by the Court of Claims on January 27, 2011. Appellants shall file their brief no later than March 16, 2011. Appellees may file a responsive brief no later than noon on March 18, 2011.
